

OFFICE OF FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

FY 2022 Financial Results Narrative As of and for the fiscal yearnding June 30, 2022

Executive Summary

- x The University's financial position moderated as a result of decline in the long term investment pool and less capital project activity
- x The University's operating performangenerated a net operating surplus (second consecutive fiscal year)
- x The University's net positive cash flow mainly due to operating activities

Please find attached the University's audited statement of financial position (balance sheet) as of 6\mathbb{O}2022, audited statement of activities for the fiscal period ending 6/30/2022, the audited statement of cash flows for the fiscal period ending 6/30/2022, and the accorpanying footnotes to the audited financial statement of the statement of the fiscal period ending 6/30/2022, and the accorpanying footnotes to the audited financial statement of financial statement of the fiscal period ending 6/30/2022, and the accorpanying footnotes to the audited financial statement of financial sta

Statement of Financial Position (comparing 0620) 22 to 6/9/2021)

Total assets declined $259.6 million, representing actease of approximate $16.4 million or 5.9%. Longterm investments, investment in plant cash and cash equivalent explain most of the change in total assets.

Total liabilities were $121.2 million, repressing a decrease of 455 million or 3.6%. Bonds and capital leases payable accbunts payable and accrued expense tain most of the change in total liabilities.

Total net assets decided to $138.4 million, representing decrease of approximately $11.9 millionor 7.9%. Positive operating performance offset by negative perating activity (mainly due to investment return) plain most of the change in total net assets.

Statement of Activities (comparing 6/2022 to 6/3/2021)

For the second consecutive fiscal year, the University generated a net operating surplus of $3.0 million for the fiscal year ending 6/30/2022, representing a decrease of $0.5 million year over year.

Total operating resnues increased by approximately $3.6 million 3.2%. The key drivers were HEERF (institutional and student port) canso contribution soffset by overall decrease in net student fees)

Total operating expensence by approximately $4.1 million 3.9%. The key drivers were HEERF (student portions) udent support, residence, dining and other auxiliary services academic support, and management and general.

TEL: 413-782-1219